

Change the course: National report on sexual assault and sexual harassment at Australian universities - 2017

Yourimbah's President and Chair of the Student Representative Committee (SRC), Karen Dimmock, has made the following statement regarding the Change the course report.

"In light of the findings of the Australian Human Rights Commission in its report titled Change the course: National report on sexual assault and sexual harassment at Australian universities - 2017, the Directors of Yourimbah acknowledge the work done by survivors, students and advocates to bring this issue to light and will continue to partner with the University of Newcastle in providing support, education services and programmes. Sexual assault or sexual harassment is unacceptable in any form, and Yourimbah is committed to helping create a safe and supportive environment for all students on the Central Coast Campus."

Further information, including a link to the report, can be found here:
<https://www.yourimbah.com.au/representation/uon-consent-matters>